

CCEL Accommodation Options

CCEL Homestay

Living with a CCEL homestay is perfect for students who want to experience the New Zealand lifestyle and get extra support. Choosing to live with a homestay provides students with:

- Your own room with a desk for studying
- Breakfast and dinner every day plus lunch at the weekend and on public holidays
- A sense of community from day 1
- The ability to practise English with your homestay every day

Your Room

- Private bedroom in a family home
- Bed with all linen provided
- Desk, heater
- Wardrobe/drawers
- Wi-Fi

Food

- Breakfast and dinner every day
- Students provide their own lunch on school days
- Three meals are provided at the weekend and public holidays

Benefits

- Practise your English everyday with your homestay
- Live life as New Zealanders do
- Great way to learn about kiwi culture
- Make life-long friends

Under 18

- Extra payment and documents are required if a student is aged under 18

Other things to note

- Each homestay has their own house rules, which you will need to respect
- Each family and home is different
- You will be asked to be part of the household. This will likely involve helping with chores around the house
- You will also be expected to interact daily with your homestay
- You will provide your own toiletries
- Students need to make their own way to and from CCEL each day. Some students will be able to walk, others will need to catch a bus
