Sonoda Student Residence

The university student residence is for students who want to share an apartment with other students. Living in the university residence includes:

- A single room with a desk for studying
- Shared living facilities with up to 4 other students
- Kitchen facilities for meal preparation
- Life on the university campus, within walking distance of CCEL

Your Room

- Private bedroom in a 5-bedroom apartment
- King single bed with all linen provided
- Desk, heater, and wardrobe/drawers
- Shared bathroom (with hairdryer)
- UC Visitor Wi-fi
- On the university campus

Communal Areas

- Lounge area and kitchen with basic cooking appliances and fridge
- Table tennis and pool tables, TV
- Washing machine and dryer

Food

- Provide and cook all your own food

Benefits

- More independence
- Less than a 10-minute walk to CCEL

Under 18

- Not available for students aged under 18

Other things to note

- Students staying longer than 6 weeks must pay a $300 bond
- You will be living with people of different ages and backgrounds
- Not all students are CCEL students
- There are quiet times which you need to respect
- You will need to keep all the shared areas clean and tidy – this includes the bathroom and kitchen
- You will provide your own toiletries
- Please note that there is limited availability in Sonoda. Early payment increases the possibility of securing a room.
